Excellence in Reading

This “Excellence in Reading” special recognition patch is designed to encourage families to spend quality time reading aloud together; to encourage the child with more advanced reading skills; and to challenge “eager readers” —children who desire to excel in reading and to accomplish an award on their own.

Excellence in Reading

To receive the Excellence in Reading patch the Adventurer should have already completed reading awards for Busy Bee, Sunbeam, Builder, and Helping Hand.

In addition, the Adventurer must read two books, not previously read, in each of the following categories:

1. Nature
2. Mission or biography
3. Bible
4. New books—family choice of subject books published in the last two years)

All resources available in WIKIBOOKS

Evangelism

1. Be an Adventurer or an Adventurer staff member (recommended for Builder and Helping Hand levels).
2. Attend at least ten meetings (evangelistic meetings, Daniel or Revelation seminars, etc.). If less than ten are conducted, attend at least two-thirds of them.
3. Share about 5 things you learned in the meeting
4. Participate at each of the meetings attended.
5. Wear your class A Adventurer uniform while participating.

Evangelism

6. Participate in at least four of the following:
- a. Be an usher.
  - b. Pick up the offering.
  - c. Have Scripture or prayer.
  - d. Assist in the set-up/take-down of the meeting hall.
  - e. Hand out the evening programs, brochures, etc.
  - f. Give a testimony of what Jesus has done for you recently.
  - g. Be a greeter.
  - h. Help operate an Adventurer booth showing what the church has for its young people.
  - i. Invite a guest who is not a member of your church to attend the meetings and host them throughout the evenings.
  - j. Contact at least ten individuals by phone or in person, inviting them to attend the meetings.
  - k. Assist in the children's meetings, if available.
